

ALLIANCE MEDICAL GAS

Medical Gas PM/ Source Equipment Repair

Medical Gas Pipeline/ Source Equipment

Stringent requirements are set forth regarding the Preventative Maintenance and Source Equipment Repair of new and existing medical gas and vacuum systems in healthcare facilities by the NFPA. Alliance Medical Gas utilizes OEM Equipment for service and maintenance and have a staff of field engineers that attend manufacturers training to effectively service given equipment. All medical gas pipeline services include the following:

- 24 Hour On Call Service Technicians
- Initial Equipment Start-up
- OEM Service Repair Manuals
- Initial Cost Estimate
- Initial Equipment Photos and Documentation
- Proper removal and disposal of hazardous chemicals
- Post Service Review with Engineering/ Plant Operations
- Equipment Alarm Testing as Required
- Gaseous Concentration Analysis
- Labeling Verification, Source Gas/Vacuum Testing
- Comprehensive Post Evaluation Report and Backup Data

Affiliations/ Agencies

Alliance Medical Gas utilizes information and is a member of numerous agencies and associations to maintain current Federal/ State and Local requirements. Alliance Medical Gas is involved with the development of specifications and governmental processes with regards to Medical Gas Infrastructure, Testing, and Life Safety requirements.

- NFPA- National Fire Protection Association 50, 99, and 101
- ASSE 6030- American Society of Sanitary Engineers
- ASPE- American Society of Plumbing Engineers
- ASHE- American Society of Healthcare Engineers
- CGA- Compressed Gas Association

1 MONARCH PLACE, SUITE 320, SPRINGFIELD, MASS 01144

TELE: 413-301-7361 / FAX: 413-301-8621